Proposed zebra crossings – London Road, Isleworth

STATEMENT OF REASONS

The Council proposing to introduce a zebra crossings in London Road where existing pedestrian refuge islands are located near Turnpike Way and outside No. 305 London Road. By changing these locations into zebra crossing, the Council aims to improve pedestrian safety particularly before and after the schools start and finish when peak pedestrian movement is experienced.

The proposals are also looking to convert existing single yellow lines to no waiting and loading “at any time” between these new zebra crossings to prevent obstruction to sightlines at the crossings, thereby improving safety for all road users.
Proposed conversion of existing informal crossing to zebra crossing.

Proposed change of existing parking and loading restrictions to 'No Waiting at any time' and 'No Loading at any time'.

Pedestrian refuge island to remain as informal crossing.

Proposed conversion of existing informal crossing to zebra crossing.

Proposed 'No Waiting at any time' and 'No Loading at any time' restrictions.
