Exclusive Right of Burial/Memorial – shared ownership <input type="checkbox"/> Yes* <input type="checkbox"/> No
Both parents can be registered as legal owners of the exclusive right of burial and memorial in the grave. If granted to both parents, then both must sign for the grave to be opened in the future or to allow any memorial work. The only exception is when one of the registered owners dies. In this case the deceased owner has got the right by law to be buried into the grave (depending upon space availability) If you select 'Yes' the Grave Deed will be issued in both parent's names.

Support for Child Funeral Costs (Children's Funeral Fund for England) - The Children's Funeral Fund for England can help to pay for some of the costs of a funeral for a child under 18 or a baby stillborn after the 24th week of pregnancy.

It is not means-tested; what you earn or how much you have in savings will not affect what you get, however, the burial or cremation must take place in England. For further information with what the fund covers, please refer to <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/childrens-funeral-fund-for-england>
