

Introduction to Hounslow's Early Help Offer and Practice Framework

The course is developed in line with Hounslow Early Help Partnership Commitment 2019-2021. It aims to equip you with knowledge and tools to ensure children and families receive the Early Help they may need.

St John's Road. Isleworth.

9.30 – 4.00

15/01/20 11/02/20 09/03/20 11/05/20 09/06/20 17/09/20 13/10/20 09/11/20
09/02/21 15/03/21

What is Early Help?

Identify when to offer Early Help to families using Hounslow Continuum of Need; the relationship between Early Help and Safeguarding

Offering Early Help

Hounslow Early Help Offer and how to support families to access this

Using the practice framework

Hounslow Early Help Practice Framework and participants' roles and responsibilities within this

Support from the 'Hub'

Support offered by the Hounslow Early Help Hub to practitioners delivering Early Help

Consent and sharing information

Using information sharing and consent safely and effectively in an Early Help context

Completing a CFAN

Undertaking Early Help family assessments and filling out a detailed CFAN to get appropriate support

Lead professional role

Acting as Lead Professional and using Team Around the Family to co-ordinate multi-agency support for families

EHM

Using the Early Help Module (EHM) as a tool to share information and make referrals for families securely online

Click below to register

Use your existing log in if you have one or register if you are a new user

<https://hounslow.safeguardingchildrenea.co.uk/>