Disabled Persons’ Freedom Pass – Guidance Notes

Section 1 - Information about you

This section asks for your personal details including name, date of birth, National Insurance number (NINO), address, telephone number and email address. All fields must be filled in (where applicable). You can find your NINO number on payslips or letters from the Department for Work and Pensions or other benefits agencies.

If you are applying on behalf of someone under the age of 16, or who cannot complete the form themselves, please put their details down in this section, and indicate your relationship to the applicant when signing the declaration.

There is a question for those who already have a Blue Badge. If you have been assessed for a badge within the preceding six months, we may use this as evidence when considering your eligibility for a Freedom Pass.

Section 2 - Proof of your identity and address

You must provide proof of identity and address before we will process your application. The London Borough of Hounslow only has a duty to process applications for people whose sole or principle address is within the borough. If you are not a resident, please contact your own local authority. If you own more than one property you are classed as residing at the property for which you pay Council Tax as your main place of residence, rather than as a second home.

Any proof of identity and address which you provide must be in the form specified in this section. We will not process your application without these proofs. Please provide copies of any documents not originals, as these will not be returned. If we have any doubts or suspicions about the authenticity of any of the documents provided we reserve the right to ask you to present them at Council offices for inspection.

You may find it easier to give consent for us to check the Council Tax register or the Electoral Roll than to provide physical proof of your address. If you are relying on us checking the Council Tax register you must make sure that your name is on the Council Tax bill.

Photographs must be passport-sized, in colour, and taken recently (i.e. within three months). You must be facing forwards in front of a plain background, your head must not be covered (unless for religious reasons) and your face must be clearly visible. You must write your name and post code on the back of the photographs.

Section 3 – Who is eligible?

The Freedom Pass scheme is governed by the Concessionary Bus Travel Act 2007, however those who are applying because they have a disability must meet one of the criterion set out in Section 151 of the Transport Act 2000, which are as follows:

a) Those who are blind or partially sighted;

b) Those who are profoundly or severely deaf;

c) Those who are without speech;

d) Those who have a disability, or has suffered an injury, which has a substantial and long-term adverse effect on his ability to walk;

e) Those who do not have arms or have long-term loss of the use of both arms;

f) Those who have a learning disability, that is, a state of arrested or incomplete development of mind which includes significant impairment of intelligence and social functioning;

g) Those who would, if they applied for the grant of a licence to drive a motor vehicle under Part III of the Road Traffic Act 1988, have their application refused pursuant to section 92 of the Act (physical fitness) otherwise than on the grounds of persistent misuse of drugs or alcohol.

The relevant guidance from the Department for Transport (DfT) for assessing eligibility can be found here https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/guidance-for-local-authorities-on-eligibility-for-disabled-people and was last published in April 2013.
The DfT is clear that the onus is firmly on the person applying for a pass to provide evidence to show that they meet the criteria. Please note however that the London Borough of Hounslow will not pay any charges that GPs or Consultants/Specialists may seek to impose on you for the provision of any supporting evidence.

Included below are descriptions of the eligible categories, including excerpts from the DfT guidance.

Category A – ‘those who are partially sighted or severely sight-impaired (blind)’

For this category the DfT advises that “In general terms a person can be registered as severely sight-impaired (blind) if they cannot see (with glasses, if necessary) the top letter of the eye test chart (used by doctors and opticians) at a distance of 3 metres or less. Some people who can read the top letter of an eye test chart at 3 metres, but not at 6 metres, may still be eligible for registration as blind if their field of vision is also severely restricted. Only being able to read the top letter at 3 metres is sometimes referred to as 3/60 vision: the person can see at 3 metres what a person with normal vision can see at 60 metres.

A person can be registered as sight impaired (partially sighted) if they have a full field of vision but can only read the top letter of the eye test chart at a distance of 6 metres or less (with glasses, if worn). However, if they can read the next three lines down at the same distance, but the field of vision is either moderately or severely restricted, they may still qualify for registration.”

Please see Section 3 for the types of evidence which we accept for this category.

Category B – ‘those who are severely or profoundly deaf’

For this category, the DfT advises that “Hearing loss is measured in decibels across the normal hearing spectrum, as dBHL (Hearing Level). People are generally regarded as having a severe hearing loss if it reaches 70-95 dBHL and a profound loss if it reaches 95+ dBHL. The Department advises that the statutory minimum concession should be made available to people in these categories.”

Please see Section 3 for the types of evidence which we accept for this category. To qualify the level of hearing loss in both ears must be greater than 70dBHL.

Category C – ‘those without speech’

For this category, the DfT advises “Included within this category are people who are unable to communicate orally in any language. Those people will be:

a) unable to make clear basic oral requests e.g. to ask for a particular destination or fare;

b) unable to ask specific questions to clarify instructions e.g. ‘Does this bus go to the High Street?’

This category would not, in the Department's opinion, cover people who are able to communicate orally but whose speech may be slow or difficult to understand, for example because of a severe stammer.”

Please see Section 3 for the types of evidence which we accept for this category. If providing a medical report/letter it must state the cause (or suspected cause) of the person’s inability to communicate verbally.

Category D – ‘ability to walk’

This category is for people who have a long-term and substantial disability that means they cannot walk or which makes walking very difficult. If you receive one of the following benefits you will qualify without the need for further assessment:

Higher Rate Mobility Component of the Disability Living Allowance – Any letter must show your full name and address and state whether your award is indefinite or time limited. Replacements can be obtained from the DW P by calling 03457 123 456 (if born before 08/04/1948) or 0345 605 6055 (if born on or before that date). Please note that Disability Living Allowance is not the same as Attendance Allowance, which is awarded for personal care in the home rather than mobility.

A score of 8 points or more in the ‘Moving Around’ category of the Mobility Component of Personal Independence Payments (PIP) – You must include every page of your PIP letter. Replacements can be obtained from the DW P by calling 0345 850 3322.

The War Pensioner’s Mobility Supplement or a lump sum in the Armed Forces Compensation Scheme (and certification) – Any letter must show your full name and address and the length of your award. Replacements can be obtained by calling Veterans UK on 0800 169 2277 or by going online at www.veterans-uk.info
Please note: if your entitlement to one of these benefits is set to expire within the lifetime of the pass, we will review your eligibility closer to that date, at which point you will have to reprove your entitlement.

Those who do not receive one of the above benefits will need to provide evidence of their disability and may be required to attend an assessment. For this category, the DfT advises "(i) they cannot walk or..." Being unable to walk means that they cannot take a single step. They need to show that because of their disability they cannot put one foot in front of the other. Walking involves always having one foot on the ground. If their only way of getting about is to swing through crutches then they will be considered unable to walk.

"(ii) …they are virtually unable to walk, or..." They will need to show that they are unable to walk very far without experiencing severe discomfort. Discomfort can mean either pain or breathlessness. Extreme fatigue and stress may also be taken into account. It has been accepted that discomfort is subjective and that some people have higher pain thresholds than others. Unless both legs are missing then they will need to show that they experience severe discomfort even when using an artificial aid. When deciding whether they are virtually unable to walk the following factors should be taken into account:

- the distance over which they can walk without experiencing severe discomfort
- the speed at which they can walk
- the length of time for which they can walk
- the manner in which they can walk.

If they can only walk up to 27 metres without severe discomfort, then they will qualify for the statutory concession. If they can only walk between 27 and 64 metres without severe discomfort then it is likely that they will qualify for the statutory concession. If they can walk more than 64 metres without severe discomfort, then they will need to show that the other three factors mean that they are virtually unable to walk. For example, if they can show that it takes them five minutes to walk 100 metres, they should qualify for the statutory concession."

The guidance also suggests that people with serious chest, lung or heart conditions could also qualify if walking the distances involved would constitute a danger to their life or would be likely to lead to a serious deterioration in their health. This means that some people with haemophilia or epilepsy may qualify in this way. The serious deterioration does not need to be permanent but it should require medical intervention for them to recover. They will need to show that any danger to their health is a direct result of the physical effort required to walk.

In all cases, entitlement depends on the applicant's difficulty in walking, and considerations such as difficulties in carrying parcels are not to be taken into account.

Walking aids should also be taken into account, so if for instance a person can walk relatively normally with the use of an artificial leg, they would not be considered eligible. Alternatively, a person who can only swing through on crutches could be considered eligible, as they would be seen as having considerable difficulty walking (provided it is due to a long term disability and not due to legs being in plaster).

For this category you should provide as much recent evidence of your disability as possible e.g. letters from GPs or Specialists detailing your condition. We would also need to see copies of any repeat prescriptions which relate to your disability.

Category E – ‘those without arms, or who have lost the ability to use them’

For this category the DfT advises “This category includes people with a limb reduction deficiency of both arms; bilateral upper limb amputation; muscular dystrophy; spinal cord injury; motor neuron disease; or a condition of comparable severity.

In the Department's opinion, it also covers both people with deformity of both arms, and people who have both arms, if in either case they are unable to use them to carry out day-to-day tasks, for example, paying coins into a fare machine. In these latter cases the Department advises that a local authority should normally require independent medical evidence to support the application."

Please see Section 3 for the types of evidence which we accept for this category.

Category F – ‘those with a learning disability’

Learning disability is defined in legislation as “a state of arrested or incomplete development of the mind which includes significant impairment of intelligence and social functioning”. Please note that learning disabilities should not be confused with learning difficulties, which can include things like dyspraxia, dyslexia, Asperger’s, ADHD or ASD, unless they are also accompanied by a significant impairment of intelligence and social functioning.
For this category, the DfT advises “These disabilities must have started before adulthood and have a lasting effect on development. The person should be able to qualify for specialist services and he or she may have had special educational provision.”

Other factors to take into account are whether or not the individual needs significant assistance to provide for their own survival (eating and drinking and keeping themselves clean and warm and clothed) or with their social/community adaptation (e.g. problem solving, social reasoning). The degree of assistance required may vary in terms of intensity (e.g. physical or verbal prompting) and frequency (e.g. daily or less than daily) but the required assistance should always be outside of the range of that expected within the individual’s particular culture or community.

Please see Section 3 for the types of evidence which we accept for this category.

Category G – Fitness to drive

The London Borough of Hounslow does not issue discretionary passes based on mental health conditions. To qualify this way the condition/disorder must be so acute that the person would not be entitled to either obtain or keep a driving license, and it must not be caused by the persistent misuse of drugs or alcohol. The DVLA has produced guidance for fitness to drive standards in the UK.

Because many of the qualifying disabilities would only prevent you from obtaining or keeping a license for a short while, those who receive passes under this category may find that they have their entitlement reviewed every 12/24 months.

Please see Section 3 for the type of evidence which we accept for this category.

The assessment process.

Most applications will be decided based on the application form and any supporting evidence. In some instances, further information will be required, in which case you will be written to.

If you are applying with evidence which would make you automatically eligible e.g. a CVI confirming that you are partially sighted or blind, or a letter confirming receipt of the Higher Rate Mobility Component of Disability Living Allowance, your application will be processed without the need for further assessment.

If your application needs to be assessed, you may be required to attend a clinic at Council offices. These clinics are held on a regular basis, and are overseen by qualified Occupational Therapists. The London Borough of Hounslow does not charge for this service. If you refuse to attend or cancel an appointment without good reason, your application may be cancelled.

If your application is approved you should receive your pass through the post within seven working days. You will be provided with a booklet advising you where you can use your pass, however for further information on this please visit the London Council’s website:

www.londoncouncils.gov.uk/services/freedom-pass/using-pass

If you are unsuccessful we will write out to you with the decision, and if you believe we have either incorrectly applied the criteria, or not taken into account something we should have, you will have the right to appeal against that decision within 28 days from the date of the rejection letter.

If your appeal is refused you will have to wait at least six months before reapplying, unless your situation changes for the worse and you can evidence this.
