This is a really lovely guesthouse! The staff are so welcoming and friendly; my partner and I felt kind of sad to leave. The rooms are small, but fine for the price. It's great to have parking included, and be so close to local shops and eateries, as well as the airport. It's also a 30 minute walk from Hounslow Heath Nature Reserve.

Practical location with car park, value for money

I stayed there for one night on business on a very warm August day.

I wanted to drop the car and get to central London by tube. This B&B just fit the bill perfectly. (It is well sign posted on the main street, which is helpful!)

Less than 5 minutes walk to Hounslow West tube station and got to Holborn no problem. Only a couple of stops and the you are at Heathrow, so it's very practical. I was glad I booked double room for a single use. The room was just large enough to get the air circulated on a very warm summer day. Would imagine I would have been stifled if I had gone for a single room. Everything was renovated, in a rather DIY way, but pleasant enough.

If you are staying there, you need to plan ahead what you are going to eat. There are shops but not many eateries around. As you may be Fantastic :~)!

After our disastrous first accommodation we were on the hunt for an alternative. Came across this place and was not disappointed!

Super friendly and welcoming staff who gave us advise on how to get to the tube and showed us to our room. Recently decorated hotel which is nicely done.

We had room 14 which is a twin room. Lovely high ceilings, free wifi in rooms, big flat screen tv, wardrobe, beverage tray, toiletries in the bathroom, clean bedding, fluffy towels and decorated lovely. Beds are super comfy!! Slept so well and we may have even snuck back into bed after breakfast!

greeted and shown to our room which was newly decorated and very clean. We had a double and a single bed which is great for us (2adults and 1child)

We discovered it was only 400yds from the UG stop so we decided to head into London for a few hours.

Breakfast was a full English plus small selection of cereal and juice (all good)

The only small negative is the shower goes from hot to cold and when it's hot you had to move out of the way as its very hot.

Overnight stay

The place is not far from Heathrow airport, and that was the reason we booked it with reasonable price. Basic accommodation, comfortable stay overnight. Reasonable breakfast was served in the morning. Only thing was the smell from the carpet ( along the corridor) that made me felt very uncomfortable when walking on it. It was a hot night and there's no fan at all!

Good Location, Good Breakfast

Stayed one night prior to early morning flight from Heathrow. This place is about 20 mins by tube to Heathrow so is conveniently located.

The website statet that the hotel has been recently refurbished, however, it hasn't been done very well. Window catches, door handles, toilet roll holder - all loose. When they cleaned the room they obviously had the door open (due to lack of space) because when you closed the door there was a heap of dust behind it. Our double room was compact to say the least. The shower room was even more bijou. Anyone over 5'10" would probably have trouble in the shower cubicle and the room itself.

The bed in room 15 was exceedingly uncomfortable - very soft.

All the little amenities I didn't expect

First, the family that runs this hotel is very friendly and helpful. We arrived early, and they kept our luggage until a room became available, which wasn't very long. The room itself was quite nice: a double bed, a twin bed, a wardrobe, a desk and chair, a flat-screen TV, two nightstands with

Okay, great for Heathrow

Room was a little small, we booked a double but got a room with 3 beds... really there should have been just the double as the room is small. It was warm and quiet at least and close to the airport for the early morning pickup. Sadly, whilst breakfast was supposed to be included, on Saturday they don't start that till 8am, and the visitor I was picking up at Heathrow landed about 6:30am, so I didn't get to try the breakfast. Room was very warm, we had to turn down the heating, but better than being cold.

We will not come back

I don't recommend this hotel to others. To start with there was a bad smell outside and inside the hotel. The room size was ok, but the shower cabinet was well too small, plus the shower was broken, the water was too hot on and off that you could burn yourself. It was very cold in the bathroom. The breakfast they serve is too late, they start at 8am, so if you are planning to leave early in the morning you will miss it. But don't worry nothing special to miss, it wasn't great. On a positive note they have a free parking outside, the location is good and the staff seems to be friendly. My advise look for something else.

Scruffy but cheap.

Found this place looking around Booking.com and the photos of the rooms etc looked fantastic and modern. In reality the place was not met up to my expectations. I was only staying 1 night due to a BA flight course so for location verses cost the accommodation was fine but I wouldn't want to stay here with a family before going on vacation. Would spend the extra on a hotel at the airport.

Needs a update

Stayed here for london and twickenham game. Its a base and not a hotel to spend time in. Rooms basic but clean. Bathrooms tight and cold. Lots of room noise and road noise. Breakfast ok but basic again. Staff attentive and helpful. Needs a lick of paint and carpets upgraded. Ok nothing more. Close to tube and buses to rugby.

Perfect place for a Heathrow Getaway!

Leaving early from Heathrow, I needed an inexpensive room...one that was close to the airport. The Firs is a 5-minute walk from the West Hounslow tube, and about 15 minutes to Terminal 3. Staff was very friendly and helpful. I arrived around 11 PM, in a downpour, and appreciated the quick check-in and help with my bag.

Room was clean and quiet despite being on Bath Rd. Breakfast was typical and quite good. No clock or phone in the room, but nothing else was missing. For the price...about $75 US...it was perfect for my needs. No fancy...just good!

Cheap, clean and friendly

We spent two nights at the firs lodge after a family member had booked it on our behalf as we were staying in the area for a family event. We booked and extra night so that we could take our son in to London to see the sights.

The hotel appears to be two houses converted in to a B&B. On initial inspection, it looks like an odd building/conversion and a bit unconventional, but when we got in to the room it was lovely and clean. Bathroom was a bit small, but functional.

The staff were great and upgraded our room to prevent us having to mess about with our travel cot. They were always friendly and very accommodating. Breakfast was served hot and quickly.

Average room - good cooked breakfast

The hotel was easy to find and had free parking out the front. Upon checking in, we were shown to our room and were told we had been upgraded. This was great as I had originally booked a twin room as no other rooms were available. The room we were shown to had a double bed and two singles in.
The wifi was free and reasonably fast and the tv had plenty of channels to choose from. The bed was comfortable, but the bathroom was very small and a bit shabby looking. The shower cubicle was so small i kept banging my elbows on the shower door! The shower itself was powerful, but was very noisy.
The room was very hot, but there was a fan and we felt safe leaving the windows open so it was manageable. Also, one of the bedside lamps had a smashed bulb so we were reluctant to turn it on.

Fantastic customer service and great location

We stayed there for one night and checked in really late. Nishant was really good and welcomed us warmly..thank you Nishant. The hotel is in a convenient location with trains and shopping area close by. People are great and very helpful. My daughter was not feeling well so they let her rest even after we checked out..how sweet.I would definitely be recommending this hotel to everyone. Only thing is just ask how to operate the shower..not too difficult though.

Value for money

Visited this guest house for the first time. Free parking outside was great with a 4/5 minute walk to the underground station. Staff friendly and attentive, I got the feeling that nothing was too much trouble for them. The steps up to the room were different heights,so be careful when walking up them.The room was small but clean,it was at the front of the guest house and noisy even with the window closed, take ear plugs if you are a light sleeper or ask for a room at the back. The shower room (no bath,other rooms might have one) was small and clean,you had to go up 1 step to get to it. Free breakfast in the morning was a massive bonus for the price. Would we stay here again,the answer is yes.

Great Little B&B

We stayed here on a night stop whilst visiting London. It was great value for money and very easy to get in and out of the city. The rooms are great, clean and tidy and very modern. The staff are very friendly and helpful and they cook a really nice breakfast too. We'd highly recommend The Firs!

Good value for money

Stayed here before an event at Twickenham, room was clean and tidy, breakfast included for £59. This was perfect. On leaving we did mention to them that there was a big gap around the window which made the room a bit chilly and they were very apologetic, bed was comfy and overall perfect for what we wanted.

Served our purpose.

We picked this accommodation as it was quite near our daughters home in Twickenham and being half term it seemed reasonable to us, we stayed for three nights found our room although small was kept nice and clean and it was fine for us. There is no lift but there is only one flight of stairs anyway. Quite a few workmen seemed to be staying there and they know a bargain. The room was a little cold but there was a heater if

Perfect for an easy resting spot

I came here for an evenings stay before an early morning flight from Heathrow. I had decided it maybe easier to jump on the tube two stops in the morning rather than having to time a shuttle service correctly from a hotel nearer the terminal. The receptionist was friendly, the room was clean and the stay was exactly what I wanted- simple, quiet and carefree.

Good value

This is well placed for the airport and there are plenty of places to walk out and eat. A bonus is there is free on site parking which is good for a hotel so close to the airport. Our room was small, especially the bathroom but it was warm with an electric radiator we could control and the beds were comfy. A full English breakfast is included in the price and the service was good. Don't expect luxury but for the price we felt this was a great stop for a night before flying

Cold noisy grim

Small room. Thin walls. Loud neighbour. Think he was staff. Obnoxious suggested i change rooms rather than him be quiet. Windows are that drafty they may as well be open. No additional blankets available. Slept with clothes on. Radiator barely on. All this for £56. I must be crazy.do

The Firs Bed & Breakfast

Reviews

Skyscanner.net

My boyfriend & I stayed here for the easy commute into central London and the location to Heathrow. We thought the B&B looked very nice online, but it was not like that in reality. The rooms were cheaply furnished and were extremely small. The bathroom was very small too, and there was some mold in the shower. The staff was very friendly which was nice, but the full English breakfast was not good. It was very cheap to stay here, so I didn't expect it to be great but I wish the pictures on their website actually represented the property. The one thing that was great was the location. It's only about a 10 minute drive to Heathrow, and a 5 minute walk to a tube stop. We probably would not stay again, though.

Good value

Twin room #20 at the back, with no neighbours but a staff room next door. Probably one of the best rooms. Double and single bed. Good enough mattresses. Small desk and chair. Tiny but functional bathroom with shower, sink and toilet. Coffee and tea. Two bottles of water every three days.

No road noise, being at the back, but some noise from the room upstairs, giving the impression that the rooms aren't particularly well insulated. Noticeable noise from planes on their way to land at Heathrow, but quiet at night until the early flights arrive.

Friendly and helpful staff. Good cooked breakfast or cereal and fruit included in the price. The property needs a bit of maintenance here and

Great location

Good place to stay for airport and for getting into central London, 2 min walk to tube. Room was excellent clean, coffee making facilities, comfortable bed and plenty of space. The staff were extremely friendly and helpful. No problem when we asked for an early breakfast and breakfast was excellent. Free parking and WiFi. I would definitely stay here again.

Good stay for night before going to Gatwick Airport

Only a short walk from the bus/tube station in Hounslow. The staff was outstanding in their desire to help and please. They cooked a full English breakfast that was tasty & well done. The breakfast room was nice. The property is old but it was evident they are working on refurbishing and trying to make things nice. Bedding was white as snow. One night heading to Heathrow airport, I would stay here again. We were able to walk only a short distance to good Indian food.

We arrived early so our room wasnt ready ,but as we needed to get changed etc they allowed us use of a room for this which was excellent at no extra cost! Lovely modern place. very nice breakfast. Also free parking available on site which was great for us! Will definately use this B&B again when visiting Twickenham!!

Great stay for a good price!

We have stayed there with my friend for 2 nights. Everything was great and clean. Staff very friendly and smiley!! Our room was meant to be for 3 ppl which I think would be quite small but enough for two. Very nicely decorated, clean with tea maker and fresh water. There was also enough space for our clothes and other stuff as there was a bed side table and desk with chairs. Bathroom was very small but we did not have a problem with that! We had a really good night sleep, there was no noise at all. Tube station is only 5mins from B&B so it also has a good connection to the centre. Full English breakfast available although there could be a bigger range of cold breakfast. In conclusion very nice place to stay for a good price with friendly staff and comfortable rooms! Will be back when in London next time.

Cheap B & B night stay near Heathrow

Stayed at The First lodge night before our holiday, pleasant welcome by receptionist, room clean and adequate, It offers free parking and free breakfast, Complimentary tea and coffee and bottled water in the room. No lifts so had to carry luggage up stairs. West Hounslow has no English restaurants but plenty of Indian and Chinese if you are looking for something to eat.

Great value for money

Very friendly & helpful staff. Easy to get to & plenty of free parking. Room was very clean but en suite is small (but again very clean). Couple of minutes walk to tube station Piccadilly line into central London. Breakfast OK but nothing special. Great value for money.

Ideal for London and walking distance to Twickenham

We were going to see England rugby at Twickenham 11/11/17 but also to see a show. This was ideal for both and with parking meant we could drive from Leicester. Tube station is 3 minute walk which we used to see the show Friday and then a 45 minute walk to Rugby on Saturday. IDEAL. Excellent value for money. Small room and en suite but clean and presentable. Service was excellent and a lovely breakfast each morning. Staff very friendly and helpful. Would recommend to everyone.

Nice place

Visited here on Wednesday night just gone and stayed in room 23 front upstairs room. Was a cold evening and the heating was on. Comfortable bed and felt safe as a women on my own. Staff treated you with respect and made sure that everything was ok for you room was up to date and no problem, only criticism is that if your a big person the bathroom isn't the best for you. This is a budget hotel in London don't expect anything like the ritz as in big rooms with fancy stuff it's just lovely for a few nights stay. I can't really fault it. Breakfast was lovely couldn't eat all of it. Clean rooms and low noise considering the area. Overall 9/10. Thank you

Nice owner but really needs updating

Booked for two nights, which was long enough. We were put in a twin room in the old prt of the building. It was very cold and the only heating is an electric heater which was put on when we arrived. The windows don't shut so are draughty and noisy from planes. The lamp shade and most surfaces were thick with dust. I was disappointed as the reviews on booking. Com were glowing. The WiFi barely worked and could not watch tv as it broke up constantly. Had no bbc channels but I retuned the tv so it does now!!!! believe some of the rooms in the new part are much nicer but I was not impressed. However the beds were clean and comfortable. But my daughter found a spider in her bed on the second night and I woke with a bite on my ankle. The showers sound like they use a jet engine to power them. The staff were so lovely that I didn't want to complain but the tv and WiFi were not usable and the room was not clean. Even the spoon for tea and coffee was dirty in the room. Needs a good clean and change of decor. Parking very good and breakfast but lack of choice for vegetarians. Would I go back no sorry I would not

Very friendly staff, clean place, great location will return

Upon arrival the staff as present and helped with the luggage. Clean rooms, with supprisingly low nuisance from the planes landing at the nearby airport of Heathrow. We found it very pleasant that our room was cleaned daily and fresh towels/beddign was provided. Decent English breakfast fried on the spot, good location to get into the underground. But what we liked most of all was the very friendly staff, which never missed an occasion to ask whether they could be of assistance.

Would recommend this place and will definitely return here.

Located near tube station. Clean, nice, great breakfast.

Located a short walk from West Humberston tube station on Piccadilly line that goes to central London. Great breakfast, clean, staff was nice and helpful. I could stay here again. Short trip and only a few days in London. Several places to eat near by including KFC. Thanks see ya again when in London.

Good value B&B

This property is located ideally for Heathrow. You have a tube station less than 5 mins walk & you are on a main bus route. Plenty of on site parking & an excellent choice of takeaway foods just over the road.

Booking was simple. We were greeted by nice staff who explained breakfast times & showed us to our room. Our room was number 25 on the back of the property overlooking the garden. It was small, but practical & very comfortable. The bathroom had a shower & this was quite tight. Coffee & tea, bottled water, toiletries & hair drier provided.

We were lucky to have a warm dry evening so sat outside in the garden, where there are plenty of tables & chairs.

Breakfast was fine the next morning. This isn't the most luxurious B&B but it's clean & practical. The staff were all very friendly.

The downside is aeroplane noise as you are very close to Heathrow, but the planes stop after about 11pm, but start again quite early.

Very Good Value for Price & Accomodating

Was looking for a place to stay near Heathrow that was inexpensive, easy to access from the 'Tube' (subway) and had a breakfast and found it at The Firs Bed & Breakfast. It's not a deluxe, 5-star hotel with all the amenities, but it doesn't cost like one either. Had a comfortable, clean room
