Basic Value for Money Hotel

PROS:

The Location is quite convenient as its just 5 mins walk from underground station Hounslow west (Piccadilly line-Blue line) which provides an easy and fast commute to the city center (30-35 mins). It is also very close to Heathrow airport. The surrounding area is safe and very convenient as it has multiple grocery stores and restaurants which remain open till midnight.

A bus stop named after the church next door is right in front of the hotel. (forgot the name of stop). Night bus also stops here.

Facilities are very basic. Rooms are clean with free WiFi, Tea and coffee tray, essential toiletries and Towels. Hot water is available 24/7.

Very basic but served a purpose

Recently arrived at the accommodation after a late flight into Heathrow. Easy access from Heathrow (Tube to Houslow West, turn left out of the station and is a short walk away). Arrived around 10pm and wasn't particularly made to feel welcome.

Room was a little grubby and I avoided the shower in the morning as it didn't look particularly clean or inviting.

Room was well stocked with tea/coffee and shampoo/soap.

Was early down to breakfast and again not made to feel particularly comfortable. Breakfast was extremely basic. Cornflakes or branflakes (no fruit on offer). The Full English was offered but being vegetarian I asked for alternative. (Eggs/ beans/ hash browns...no tomatoes or mushrooms in this breakfast). I had eggs on toast in the end which was fine. Very basic stay and breakfast but served it's purpose as a quick stopover before returning home. Would have be grateful for a more pleasant welcome and cleaner looking environment.

Nice Place to Stay

Booked the room for a one night stay before traveling to Heathrow Airport. The hotel is just a short walk from the tube station.

The check#in was quick and easy and our room was ready on arrival. The male receptionist, help us with our bags, which was good of him.

We had room 12. Very clean and spacious. Bathroom was very small but not complaining about that! Bed was very comfy and we both got an excellent nice sleeps even though the planes did come flying by. That did not bother us.

Breakfast was excellent. Help yourself to cereals and fruit juice and the waiter will bring you a cooked breakfast, which was excellent.

Good Clean Hotel

Booked this accommodation as attending an event at twickenham stadium, cannot complain the room was ready on arrival and very clean, we didn't spend much time in the room good amentites, bottled water, fan, hair dryer tea and coffee making facilities and also soap and shampoo. Off road parking and very helpful staff.

Didn't have breakfast so cant comment on that

Does exactly what it says.

We stayed here for the Eminem concert in twickenham for 1 night and we have nothing to complain about. Room was ready at 2 as stated, got shown to our room, all the staff were friendly, breakfast was good and the room was clean & tidy. You could hear traffic noise and the occasional plane going over but what do you expect?

We were a little sceptical booking as it was one of the cheapest and only places available for our dates and some of the reviews didnt give us much confidence but we had no issues and wouldn't hesitate to stay here again!

Good for events at Twickenham Stadium

Staff very welcoming, reasonable room and a comfortable night. En-suite very small but ok. Very good breakfast cooked to order, although dining room is small.

Very close to Hounslow West station...turn left out of the station and a 200yd walk. Receptionist ordered a taxi for us to Twickenham (fare £15), journey back from concert...hop on the free bus to Hounslow east then the tube for the 4min ride back to Hounslow West. You could do the tube and free bus to Twickenham or it is walkable if wearing good shoes!

Absolutely awful

Arrived at the hotel and there was no problem, man at reception was polite and the room was fine.

Just before midnight when me and my partner were about to go to sleep people arrived in the room next to ours and they were playing loud music, shouting and banging on the walls. After deciding to complain to reception we stepped outside into the corridor and the whole area stunk of weed and the shouting became even louder. When we arrived at reception there was no one at there despite being described as '24hr'. After waiting for about 10 minutes someone eventually came in from smoking outside and we instructed him of the problem. He said he had just told them through the window to stop smoking (it was ground floor) and to turn the music off. We asked him to knock on their door and formally tell them to stop as the music was still blaring. We returned to our room.

The guests turned their music down, not off, and continued to shout and bang. They also continued to smoke. After trying to ignore it and failing Read more >

All you need

This B&B is about a 5 minute walk from the tube station in a straight line up the main road, which makes finding it very easy. The short distance, with shops on the other side of the road adds a more secure feel to the route. I arrived just before 10pm, with my wife arriving later as travelling from Hertfordshire. Although she was another hour or more, the kind lady waited up in order to let her in. Great service! The bedroom was well decorated with a comfortable bed and tea making facilities, and a simple en-suite. Our room was at the front, and due to the old style building,

Would happily stay again

I stayed here with my teenage daughter for a concert in Hammersmith, we came by train and then tube, tube very easy, hounslow west station is literally two mins walk if that so location ideal, very close to Heathrow so fun watching planes! On arrival I'll admit from the outside I thought 'what on earth is this'! Outside is very run down and not appealing at all but once inside it's really lovely, staff very friendly and helpful, room nice and clean, breakfast was basic just cereals, juice and hot cooked breakfasts but it was included in price and not expensive for London so not complaining at all, would happily stay again when visiting london, would have been nice to have maybe some fruit and yogurts and breakfast Read more >

Cheap ok for a bed for the night

Really hard to review this place because it was so cheap.

 $Good\ points, friendly\ staff,\ comfy\ bed,\ free\ parking\ ,\ free\ WiFi,\ close\ to\ the\ train\ station\ less\ than\ 5\ min\ walk.$

Bad points, room was small, walls were dirty, smell of cigarettes in the bathroom.

Breakfast was awful they gave me beans, eggs, sausage toast and chips, yes chips!

So if your on your own and want a cheap bed for the night it's ideal, just go to weatherspoons down the road for breakfast or the McDonald's.

But for a longer stay or taking a partner or family ${\bf I}$ would give it a miss.

problematic. An amazing view from our window of the magnificent church next door. It was absolutely beautiful with the autumn leaves falling. A good stay, but the tall woman in the morning at breakfast is an absolute liability. I assume she has some disorder as she was rude, loud, aggressive and agitated. Much improvement needed

Arrived early evening for a couple of nights stay at Firs Lodge. On first appearance seemed a nice hotel, the young man on reception was welcoming and showed us to our room. Travelling as a family of 4, room consisted of a double and 2 single beds bit cramped. The shower room was very small with shower having very little power what water it did provide ended up on floor and toilet due to flimsy shower curtain. Beds were comfy and didnt hear noise from aircraft only noise was other guests.

Breakfast..... in my opinion poor. Stayed 2 nights and couldn't face looking at another breakfast let alone taste it. The full English on first morning although large was poor quality, bacon tasted off, sausage was like playdoh. The lids on jugs containing juice were filthy. The tables were only partially set up.... if you had a cup and saucer then lucky to also have a knife and fork! When asked for a glass for juice the lady from kitchen advised she would look if had any then emerged wiping a glass with a dirty white bath towel. Same occurred when asked for a spoon to Read more >

Excellent value for money

Stayed with my partner on a business stopover. Our room, recently remodelled, was small but had everything you need, including a hairdryer. The bathroom was modern with a huge shower cubicle and a heated towel rail. The bed was very comfortable and there are tea and coffee making facilities in the room.

Nothing was too much trouble for the staff including borrowing an iron and ironing board.

With a full English breakfast included, free parking and free WiFi, you can't go wrong. Unbeatable for the price.

Worst place in I have ever stayed

Photos on their website do not look like the rooms. Shower was mouldy and unclean, mastic had been put on by a child. No towels, wifi kept dropping out. Very noisy guests at all hours, banging and crashing. Bed was like sleeping on a bag of golf balls, jet engine noise constant, smell of curry in the room and was kept awake by crawling insects.

Friendly B&B, wherefrom you can easily go to Heathrow and Central London

At the end of a 2 weeks car tour of England and Scotland (with my [adult] daughter as my driver as I am a somewhat disabled person) and before taking a plane back to Canada, I had booked for 2 nights at the Firs B&B, as we wanted to take a day to go visiting London; what a good choice! Ample parking in front of the lodge. It is situated 200m from Hounslow West tube station, wherefrom you can easily go anywhere in Central London. The room was not very large but clean and remarkably quiet considering the proximity of the main road. The dining room is not very large either but full English breakfasts are cooked to order and are very good. The staff seems to be all Indian; some are not perfectly fluent in English, but all are friendly and very helpful. The second morning we drove our car back to the airport in no time, et voila! Good value for money, if we ever come back to London we will stay again.

Reasonably pleasant

This is advertised as a 2 star. It is a 2 star in terms of rooms / bathroom, both are small and dated. However the beds are clean and rooms are very warm with lots of hot water available. Complimentary tea, coffee and biscuits are plentiful too. The breakfast however is not 2 star, it was fresh, well cooked and we have had much worse in 4 star establishments. The service was very good indeed all round and the free parking is a real bonus! The young family running this Lodge were very helpful. This is clearly a big undertaking for such a young family and we overwhelming though that they are going to clearly strive to make this a better facility in the future. We only stayed for 1 night to go to watch the rugby at

Would not recommend

Advertised as a comfortable and homely lodge, though it is anything but. When we were given our FIRST room, it had a dank cigarette smell that lingered, and stains on the towels. The bathroom was tiny with mould in the shower and on the tap of the sink. We didn't even want to drink the water there.

We asked to be moved to a different room which was only a little better - the window had a crack that let in the cold air and noise of the main road and the chatter of people who were standing outside. This new room didn't have a curtain and only blinds that still let the lights of the building come through. Noise from staff and guests outside our room could be heard at an annoyingly loud volume - lots of coughing and Read more >

Think twice before staying here

The most worst place ever, rude personal, please avoid this hotel, we decided to leave and find another place. The guy in the reception allegedly didn't find the keys for our room, we waited around one hour for nothing. He was on a very bad mood. You feel very insecure.

No recommend. Is disgusted

This hotel is something that is difficult to describe. We stayed for a night with the husband and the child. So we were given a room on the first floor extremely dirty, the bedspread dirty with some stains, the bathroom dirty and full of hair, the dirty floor, the colbul lingers everywhere. The window was broken, all night long I had a cigarette smell coming from outside and because there was electricity due to the Broken Glass, the child woke up with snot and fever. In the morning we were brought breakfast with mold on bread. So this hotel is not worth any money. It's absolutely filthy and the food is rotten. When I asked him why the bread was moldy, he shrugged.

Decent for area

Good hotel, location close enough to restaurants, pubs and bars. Breakfast was lovely. Room was clean and had all you would expect in s hotel, but not as expensive as the chains. Free parking within M25 zone is always a massive plus. Good for a decent nights sleep, don't know what there is to do in the area which would require a longer stay.

Great base ,easy access to London.

Needed a place to sleep whilst visiting to watch the six nations rugby for the price you pay, it's all you need....clean ,comfortable bed, wifi, Helpful lady on reception when we arrived. Shower room a little on the small side but then how long are you planning on being in there when your here to visit the sights. Tube station 2 minutes walk away and then 35 minutes to Piccadilly Circus and from there you can explore. Breakfast was ok,,, some would be picky but I guess for the price you have paid to stay it was fine. Would definitely stay here again for visiting London and for the rugby.

Rugby Weekend (Ideal location for Twickenham)

A lovely clean hotel offering excellent value for money with very helpful staff and a great breakfast. The only downsides were the shower in room 1 which could really do with upgrading and the temperature of the hotel which was chilly, especially in the morning.

Overall, thank you for a lovely stay.

small but adequate for overnight stops

We came from the airport late at night. The on duty fellow, an up and coming student, received us well. The room was quite comfortable while not overly spacious. Heated, neat and clean with cable t.v. Hot water. The on duty manager was very helpful in getting settled. Next morning Breakfast was efficient while simple.

We arrived by taxi but left with a short 5 minute walk to the train which stopped right in Heahtrow airport. Very convenient.

Good value

Twin room #20 at the back, with no neighbours but a staff room next door. Probably one of the best rooms. Double and single bed. Good enough matrasses. Small desk and chair. Tiny but functional bathroom with shower, sink and toilet. Coffee and tea. Two bottles of water every three days.

No road noise, being at the back, but some noise from the room upstairs, giving the impression that the rooms aren't particularly well insulated. Noticeable noise from planes on their way to land at Heathrow, but quiet at night until the early flights arrive.

Friendly and helpful staff. Good cooked breakfast or cereal and fruit included in the price. The property needs a bit of maintenance here and Read more 🗸

Good stay for night before going to Gatwick Airport

Only a short walk from the bus/tube station in Hounslow. The staff was outstanding in their desire to help and please. They cooked a full English breakfast that was tasty & well done. The breakfast room was nice. The property is old but it was evident they are working on refurbishing and trying to make things nice. Bedding was white as snow. One night heading to Heathrow airport, I would stay here again. We were able to walk only a short distance to good Indian food.

Great stay for a good price!

We have stayed there with my friend for 2 nights. Everything was great and clean. Staff very friendly and smiley!! Our room was meant to be for 3 ppl which I think would be quite small but enough for two. Very nicely decorated, clean with tea maker and fresh water. There was also enough space for our clothes and other stuff as there was a bed side table and desk with chairs.

Bathroom was very small but we did not have a problem with that! We had a really good night sleep, there was no noise at all. Tube station is only 5mins from B&B so it also has a good connection to the centre. Full English breakfast available although there could be a bigger range of cold breakfast. In conclusion very nice place to stay for a good price with friendly staff and comfortable rooms! Will be back when in London next time.

Served our purpose.

We picked this accommodation as it was quite near our daughters home in Twickenham and being half term it seemed reasonable to us, we stayed for three nights found our room although small was kept nice and clean and it was fine for us. There is no lift but there is only one flight of stairs anyway. Quite a few workmen seemed to be staying there and they know a bargain. The room was a little cold but there was a heater if you needed to use it. The full breakfast was a bit over facing so I just asked for a smaller one. Nearby transport was good bus stops at both sides of the roads and underground nearby. Parking here was free.

Perfect for an easy resting spot

I came here for an evenings stay before an early morning flight from Heathrow. I had decided it maybe easier to jump on the tube two stops in the morning rather than having to time a shuttle service correctly from a hotel nearer the terminal.

The receptionist was friendly, the room was clean and the stay was exactly what I wanted-simple, quiet and carefree.

Good value

This is well placed for the airport and there are plenty of places to walk out and eat. A bonus is there is free on site parking which is good for a hotel so close to the airport. Our room was small, especially the bathroom but it was warm with an electric radiator we could control and the beds were comfy.

A full English breakfast is included in the price and the service was good. Don't expect luxury but for the price we felt this was a great stop for a night before flying

Nice cozy bed & breakfast

Close to the airport and the underground, 2-3 stops from the terminal. Quiet neighbourhood. Great english breakfast in the morning, helpful staff. Prices very affordable. Perfect for an overnight stay.

Cold noisy grim

Small room. Thin walls. Loud neighbour. Think he was staff. Obnoxious suggested i change rooms rather than him be quiet. Windows are that drafty they may as well be open. No additional blankkets available. Slept with clothes on. Radiator barely on. All this for £56. I must be crazy.do not stay here. On a positive note- there is free wifi and greasy breakfast

Not what it seems

My boyfriend & I stayed here for the easy commute into central London and the location to Heathrow. We thought the B&B looked very nice online, but it was not like that in reality. The rooms were cheaply furnished and were extremely small. The bathroom was very small too, and there was some mold in the shower. The staff was very friendly which was nice, but the full English breakfast was not good. It was very cheap to stay here, so I didn't expect it to be great but I wish the pictures on their website actually represented the property. The one thing that was great was the location. It's only about a 10 minute drive to Heathrow, and a 5 minute walk to a tube stop. We probably would not stay again, though.

The Good & Not so Good

I dislike negative reviews so I will start with the good:

Good location from Heathrow

Friendly staff, hope you meet Andy

Delicious British breakfast

Close to train

A few restaurants/markets in walking distance

Water pressure in shower was great

Big TV with lots of channels

Decent for area

Good hotel, location close enough to restaurants, pubs and bars. Breakfast was lovely. Room was clean and had all you would expect in s hotel, but not as expensive as the chains. Free parking within M25 zone is always a massive plus. Good for a decent nights sleep, don't know what there is to do in the area which would require a longer stay.

Great base, easy access to London.

Needed a place to sleep whilst visiting to watch the six nations rugby.for the price you pay,it's all you need....clean ,comfortable bed,wifi,Helpful lady on reception when we arrived.Shower room a little on the small side but then how long are you planning on being in there when your here to visit the sights.Tube station 2 minutes walk away and then 35 minutes to Piccadily Circus and from there you can explore.Breakfast was ok,,,some would be picky but I guess for the price you have paid to stay it was fine.Would definitely stay here again for visiting London and for the rugby.

Rugby Weekend (Ideal location for Twickenham)

A lovely clean hotel offering excellent value for money with very helpful staff and a great breakfast. The only downsides were the shower in room 1 which could really do with upgrading and the temperature of the hotel which was chilly, especially in the morning.

Overall, thank you for a lovely stay.

small but adequate for overnight stops

We came from the airport late at night. The on duty fellow, an up and coming student, received us well. The room was quite comfortable while not overly spacious. Heated, neat and clean with cable t.v. Hot water. The on duty manager was very helpful in getting settled. Next morning Breakfast was efficient while simple.

We arrived by taxi but left with a short 5 minute walk to the train which stopped right in Heahtrow airport. Very convenient.

Practical location with car park, value for money

I stayed there for one night on business on a very warm August day.

I wanted to drop the car and get to central London by tube. This B&B just fit the bill perfectly. (It is well sign posted on the main street, which is helpful!)

Less than 5 minutes walk to Hounslow West tube station and got to Holborn no problem. Only a couple of stops and the you are at Heathrow, so it's very practical. I was glad I booked double room for a single use. The room was just large enough to get the air circulated on a very warm summer day. Would imagine I would have been stifled if I had gone for a single room. Everything was renovated, in a rather DIY way, but pleasant enough

If you are staying there, you need to plan ahead what you are going to eat. There are shops but not many eateries around. As you may be Fantastic:)!

After our disastrous first accommodation we were on the hunt for an alternative. Came across this place and was not disappointed!

Super friendly and welcoming staff who gave us advise on how to get to the tube and showed us to our room. Recently decorated hotel which is nicely done.

We had room 14 which is a twin room. Lovely high ceilings, free wifi in rooms, big flat screen tv, wardrobe, beverage tray, toiletries in the bathroom, clean bedding, fluffy towels and decorated lovely. Beds are super comfy!! Slept so well and we may have even snuck back into bed after breakfast!

Great Stay

We booked this last minute as booking.com stated it was around 6 miles from Thorpe Park. It's actually 11 miles away! When we arrived we were greeted and shown to our room which was newly decorated and very clean. We had a double and a single bed which is great for us (2adults and 1child)

We discovered it was only 400yds from the UG stop so we decided to head into London for a few hours.

Breakfast was a full English plus small selection of cereal and juice (all good)

The only small negative is the shower goes from hot to cold and when it's hot you had to move out of the way as its very hot. Read more \checkmark

Overnight stay

The place is not far from Heathrow airport, and that was the reason we booked it with reasonable price. Basic accommodation, comfortable stay overnight. Reasonable breakfast was served in the morning. Only thing was the smell from the carpet (along the corridor) that made me felt very uncomfortable when walking on it. It was a hot night and there's no fan at all!

Good Location, Good Breakfast

Stayed one night prior to early morning flight from Heathrow. This place is about 20 mins by tube to Heathrow so is conveniently located.

The website statest that the hotel has been recently refurbished, however, it hasn't been done very well. Window catches, door handles, toilet roll holder - all loose. When they cleaned the room they obviously had the door open (due to lack of space) because when you closed the door there was a heap of dust behind it. Our double room was compact to say the least. The shower room was even more bijou. Anyone over 5'10" would probably have trouble in the shower cubicle and the room itself.

The bed in room 15 was exceedingly uncomfortable - very soft.

All the little amenities I didn't expect

First, the family that runs this hotel is very friendly and helpful. We arrived early, and they kept our luggage until a room became available, which wasn't very long. The room itself was quite nice: a double bed, a twin bed, a wardrobe, a desk and chair, a flat-screen TV, two nightstands with lamps, a small table with coffee and tea service, and a vanity sink with lighted mirror. The room didn't even seem particularly small, maybe because we had just arrived from a cruise ship cabin, but it was pretty typical for Europe. The bathroom was quite small but functional, with a toilet and a small shower. Water is heated on demand, which actually works very well. The sheets and towels were soft and new. There was even a tray with bottled water, soaps, and shampoo. Behind the hotel is a small garden which is being worked on at present. We had lunch out there in the shade one day. I think it has the potential to be very attractive. Breakfast was hearty and very English: eggs, sausages, bacon, beans, toast, hash browns. Juices, cereal, and coffee were also available. The neighborhood is both residential and business, There are middle class Read more \checkmark

Okay, great for Heathrow

Room was a little small, we booked a double but got a room with 3 beds... really there should have been just the double as the room is small. It was warm and quiet at least and close to the airport for the early morning pickup. Sadly, whilst breakfast was supposed to be included, on Saturday they don't start that till 8am, and the visitor I was picking up at Heathrow landed about 6:30am, so I didn't get the try the breakfast. Room was very warm, we had to turn down the heating, but better that than being cold.

We will not come back

I don't recommend this hotel to others. To start with there was a bad smell outside and inside the hotel. The room size was ok, but the shower cabinet was well too small, plus the shower was broken, the water was too hot on and off that you could burn yourself. It was very cold in the bathroom. The breakfast they serve is too late, they start at 8am, so if you are planning to leave early in the morning you will miss it. But don't worry nothing special to miss, it wasn't great. On a positive note they have a free parking outside, the location is good and the staff seems to be friendly. My advise look for something else.
