Prevention of crime & disorder: During underage sales operations conducted by Hounslow Council Trading Standards, TRISHUL GROCERIES supplied alcohol to minors on 2 occasions, contrary to S.146(1) of the Licensing Act 2003. The first occasion was on 25th May 2023 & the sale was made by Mr Tamotharampillai GNANAHARAN, the Premises Licence Holder & Designated Premises Supervisor. On 14th May 2024 at Uxbridge Magistrates Court Mr GNANAHARAN was convicted of this offence. On 30th October 2025, the business again sold alcohol to a minor, demonstrating a continued course of criminal conduct.

Public safety: Supplying alcohol to minors poses a significant risk to public safety, primarily due to the increased likelihood of dangerous & antisocial behaviour.

The prevention of public nuisance: Young children who have drunk alcohol are more likely to engage in rowdy behaviour & public disorder creating a public nuisance disrupting the quality of life of local residents.

The Protection of Children from Harm: The supply of alcohol to children creates serious issues that impact their physical health, mental development and immediate safety. It is recognised that alcohol consumption by minors poses immediate health risks and increases the likelihood of them becoming victims or perpetrators of crime. It is known that the earlier a child begins drinking, the more likely they are to develop alcohol dependency or substance abuse disorders in adulthood. Children who drink alcohol are also more vulnerable to physical or sexual assault and may be more easily targeted for criminal exploitation.

Please provide as much information as possible to support the application (please read guidance note 3)

On 25th May 2023, during an underage sales exercise conducted by Hounslow Council Trading Standards, TRISHUL GROCERIES, 2-6 Clayponds Lane, Brentford, TW8 0BL supplied alcohol to a 14-year-old child. The sale was made by the Premises Licence Holder & Designated Premises Supervisor, Mr Thamotharampillai GNANAHARAN.

When challenged directly after the sale by a member of Trading Standards staff, Mr GNANAHARAN stated he thought the 14-year-old volunteer looked 22 or 23.

On 14th May 2024 at Uxbridge Magistrates, Mr GNANAHARAN was convicted of supplying alcohol to a person under the age of 18, contrary to s.146 of the Licensing Act 2003.

After this sale of alcohol to a minor & subsequent prosecution of Mr GNANAHARAN in court, coupled with assurances received from him that there would be no repeat, the 'benefit of the doubt' was given to the business and a review of the alcohol licence was not undertaken.

On 30th October 2025, Hounslow Trading Standards repeated the underage sales exercise, this time utilising a 15-year-old volunteer. Again, Trishul Groceries supplied alcohol to the underage volunteer with no attempt being made whatsoever by the person serving to substantiate the volunteer's age.

The person who made this second sale is now known to be [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] was spoken to by Trading Standards immediately after the sale and said [REDACTED] thought the volunteer looked 20 years of age and that the item purchased was a non-alcoholic drink.

On 27 November 2025, [REDACTED] attended a formal recorded interview in relation to this sale. [REDACTED] accepted she scanned the alcohol, took payment and provided change, but claimed [REDACTED] does not work at the shop.

[REDACTED] stated despite selling the alcohol to the 15-year-old volunteer, [REDACTED] does not work for the business and never has. [REDACTED] stated she is employed [REDACTED] nearby and only visits the shop on occasion to socialise. [REDACTED] went on to say that as the one member of staff who was on the premises was otherwise engaged, [REDACTED] went behind the counter to serve, scanned the alcohol through the till, took payment and provided change, despite not working for the business. It is important to note, when spoken to immediately after the sale, [REDACTED] did not mention any of this.

[REDACTED] also served the Trading Standards member of staff who was next in the queue.

In interview [REDACTED] confirmed [REDACTED] has no training & received no instruction from Mr GNANAHARAN in relation to underage sales as despite making the sale, [REDACTED] is not an employee.

[REDACTED] gave her home address as [REDACTED]. This is the same home address as the Premises Licence Holder & Designated Premises Supervisor Mr GNANAHARAN.

Mr GNANAHARAN also attended a recorded interview conducted under caution on 27th November 2025. He confirmed he is aware it is a criminal offence to supply alcohol to a person under the age of 18. He also confirmed he is aware as the Premises Licence Holder & Designated Premises Supervisor it is his responsibility to ensure compliance with the Licensing Act 2003 and uphold the 4 licensing objectives, although he was unable to name any of them. He accepted selling alcohol to a minor contravenes all four licensing conditions.

He stated [REDACTED] does not work for the business & admitted a lack of supervision had allowed [REDACTED] behind the counter and enabled a second sale of alcohol to a minor by the business. Mr GNANAHARAN explained a training regime has now been implemented at the business where all staff are trained in relation to underage sales and they sign to agree the training has been received and understood.

However, it became apparent this training regime was not implemented after the first sale in 2023 or even after the subsequent prosecution in court. It was only implemented on 17th November 2025, over 2 weeks after the second sale of alcohol to a child by his business. Mr GNANAHARAN agreed this was too late.

In addition, this new training pack would only apply to employees, of which [REDACTED] is not one.

The new training pack was produced in interview & contained a new, blank 'Refusals Register'. When questioned how often Mr GNANAHARAN refuses customers, he replied he had 2 refusals in the past week. When asked why these refusals were not recorded in the refusals register, Mr GNANAHARAN said he had forgotten.

It is evident even after being prosecuted for the first sale of alcohol to a child, insufficient steps were taken by Mr GNANAHARAN to prevent a recurrence. By not recording the most recent refusals in the register, it is apparent this new system post the second sale of alcohol to a child, is being already being ignored.

Allowing a person who is apparently not employed by the business to assume control and sell alcohol to a minor demonstrates the business is not being effectively managed & supervised by Mr GNANAHARAN.

It is clear Mr GNANAHARAN as Premises Licence Holder & Designated Premises Supervisor has again failed in his responsibility to uphold the Licensing Objectives and adhere to his legal obligations. This is compounded by his recent prosecution for an identical offence.

It is crucial that those licensed to supply alcohol do so responsibly in accordance with legal obligations and uphold licensing objectives to prevent a significant detrimental impact on the local community.

After 2 sales of alcohol to minors & 1 criminal prosecution within a relatively short period of time, Hounslow Council Trading Standards has no faith in the ability of Mr GNANAHARAN to uphold his legal obligations or the Licensing Objectives.

Requesting this review is a critical step in upholding the law and protecting the community. Mr GNANAHARAN has demonstrated a systematic failure to comply with his legal obligations and uphold the licensing objectives.

Therefore, Hounslow Council Trading Standards believe it is reasonable & proportionate for the alcohol licence to be reviewed, with our recommendation it be revoked.
